29th ANNUAL CONFERENCE

American Association of Bovine Practitioners

San Diego, California

September 12-15, 1996

If someone tells you Costly 2mL
clostridials cause less carcass trim than 5mLs,
tell 'em where to stick it.

The key to minimizing carcass trim when using clostridial (7-way) vaccines is proper vaccination technique and placement, not dose size. And no clostridial vaccine—including costly 2mLs—protects your clients' cattle better, meets BQA guidelines and offers greater value than market-leading Ultrabac.[®]

Ultrabac[®]
Still the smart choice.

Who's on first? What's going on? I don't know how long they'll be around? Where did they go?

Lately it seems like everywhere you turn things are changing. Nowhere is this more true than with animal health companies.

At Bayer, we know you have enough problems already, your animal health company shouldn't add to them. You don't want to worry about who they're merging with, who's buying them out, or for how long they're going to be around.

That's why Bayer is introducing our *Contract With The Profession*SM. It's more than product quality, more than a guarantee, more than just talk. It's a solid foundation for your future successes. With Bayer, you can be sure there will be a future.

When you meet with your Bayer representative this month, discuss our Contract With The
